Description

The property comprises an entrance hall, living room, bedroom, kitchen, hallway, bathroom and balcony.

The high floor, the excellent brightness, the open views and the tranquility of the views are the main strengths of the property, guaranteeing private spaces away from traffic noise.

The apartment is in need of complete renovation, offering the opportunity to redesign and customize the spaces to suit your living needs. The internal layout also lends itself to a different spatial organization, which should be discussed with a technician.

The heating is centralized.

The location is well-connected and close to Rome Trastevere station, Viale Marconi, and the neighborhood's main amenities.

This description and floor plans are purely indicative and do not constitute contractual elements.
