Description

Majestic palace in the historic center of the beautiful city of Brindisi called "PALAZZO FESTA".

The property was excellently renovated in the year 2000, the oldest part of which dates back to the 1300s, belonging in the 1600s to a family of wealthy merchants and subsequently purchased (19th CENTURY) by CARLO STEFANO FESTA, hence the name; Festa, Consul of Turin, had the dream of seeing BRINDISI "Rome's oldest city, rise again on the ashes of a gem port of inestimable value" at the center of commercial traffic with the East.

The very high vaults, the Gothic arch in carparo, the engravings on the architrave and the capitals found during the renovation, give prestige and charm to the building, which has over 670 m2 of covered area made up of ten rooms, two of which are mezzanines and 4 bathrooms with the predisposition to be able to create others; It also has approximately 135 m2 of external courtyard equipped with pedestrian and vehicular access.

Currently leased, it is used for commercial use.

Also excellent as a private residence or top-level accommodation facility.

There is the possibility of payment with the rent to buy formula.
