Description

Via Barnaba Tortolini – Parioli

Located on one of the most prestigious and sought-after streets in the Parioli district, within an elegant period building with concierge service, we are pleased to present this exclusive ground-floor residence, enhanced by a spacious private landscaped garden-an exceptionally rare opportunity in Rome's residential market.

The entrance opens into a refined and light-filled interior, where the impressive double reception room takes center stage. Generous proportions and large floor-to-ceiling windows create a seamless connection between the indoor living spaces and the garden, offering an exceptional sense of openness, privacy, and natural light.

The living area is complemented by a fully equipped, spacious kitchen connected to an independent service wing comprising a hallway, bedroom, and bathroom. This versatile space is ideal for household staff, guests, or as a self-contained area for a variety of uses.

The sleeping quarters, thoughtfully separated from the reception areas, are accessed via a well-proportioned hallway and feature two generously sized bedrooms, one of which includes a walk-in wardrobe. The current layout also offers the possibility of easily creating a third bedroom without compromising the harmony of the living spaces. Three elegantly finished bathrooms, appointed with high-quality materials, complete this area.

The property has undergone a meticulous full renovation, with particular attention paid to construction quality, functionality, and everyday comfort. It features state-of-the-art systems, central heating, air conditioning throughout, high-performance thermal and acoustic insulation, electric shutters, and security systems installed on every opening.

The property's most distinctive feature is undoubtedly its magnificent private garden: spacious, secluded, and enriched by mature trees, it is arranged into several outdoor living areas dedicated to relaxation and entertaining. A true open-air extension of the home, offering the rare privilege of enjoying nature in the heart of Parioli.

Completing the property are a private garage and a cellar, both highly valuable assets in one of Rome's most exclusive residential neighborhoods.

The residence also benefits from dual access, both through the private garden and directly from the condominium, providing exceptional flexibility and further enhancing the property's appeal.

An exclusive residence that combines timeless elegance, contemporary comfort, and one of the district's most desirable features: a large private garden in one of Rome's most prestigious addresses.

Please note that some of the images are renderings intended solely to illustrate the property's potential and how it could be enhanced.
